

DECENTRING 'WESTERN' SOCIOLOGY?

TOWARDS A CONVERSATION BETWEEN
POSTSOCIALIST, POSTCOLONIAL AND DECOLONIAL
RESEARCH

18. JUNI 2021,

LOCATION: ZOOM – MEETING 9:30 – 17:30

Vortragssprachen: Deutsch und Englisch

09:30 – 09:45

Einführung (Helma Lutz,
Frankfurt & Anna Amelina, Cottbus)

09:45 – 10:00

Vorstellungsrunde

10:00 – 10:30

Inter-imperiality and Politics of Positionality between and beyond the Global South and the Global East (Manuela Boatca, Freiburg)

10:30 – 11:00

Knowledge Production and
Circulation: Why Decolonising
Matters also beyond the Postcolonial Contexts (Joanna Pfaff, Bielefeld)

11:00 – 11:15

Pause

11:15 – 11:45

Understanding Integration and Diversity Development in a Postsocialist Environment
(Birgit Glorius, Chemnitz)

11:45 – 12:15

Invective Kodierungen von Interkulturalität (Heike Greschke, Dresden)

12:15 – 13:15

Pause

13:15 – 13:45

Decolonial Perspectives on Entangled Inequalities
(Encarnación Gutiérrez
Rodríguez, Gießen)

13:45 – 14:15

Epistemic Inequalities in Collaborative Research:
Some Reflections (Eva Gerharz, Fulda)

14.15 – 14.30

Pause

14.30 – 15.00

Migrating West in Post-
Enlargement Europe:
Theorizing Narratives and Counter-Narratives of Belonging in the Example of Poland (Karolina Barglowski, Dortmund)

15.00 – 15.30

Reflexive Perspektive in der Migrationsforschung (Boris Nieswand, Tübingen)

15.30 – 16.00

Tba (Elisabeth Tuidier, Kassel)

16.00 – 17.30

Allgemeine Diskussion (Moderation: Anna Amelina
und Helma Lutz)

17.30

Ende des Workshops