

Announcement for the sponsorship award of the association "Frauenhilfswerk Cottbus e. V." 2023

General information

The association "Frauenhilfswerk Cottbus e.V." has been a regional service organization of working women with socio-political commitment for 22 years. The association deals with questions of the legal, social and professional status of women and is committed to improving the living conditions of women and girls.

The women of the association are particularly committed to:

- unhindered access to education and training for women and girls as well as qualification for leadership tasks
- economic independence and permanent employment opportunities for women
- the best possible care and medical treatment for women and children.

The award is given to a female student of the BTU Cottbus-Senftenberg, who is engaged in a special way in the above mentioned sense during her studies as well as beyond.

Endowment

The prize is endowed with 1,000 €.

Eligibility requirements

The award is open to female BTU students.

Criteria

- Good to very good academic performance
- Commitment to improving the situation of women in society (as explained above)

Nomination

All employees of BTU Cottbus-Senftenberg are eligible to nominate. The student should submit her application via the dean's office of her faculty. From there, the application will be forwarded to the Equal Opportunity Office.

Selection

All submitted proposals will be reviewed by the members of the jury, which consists of representatives of the Equal Opportunity Council, the Student Council, the Commission for Teaching, Studies, Study Reform and Continuing Education as well as the Board of the Association. The jury then decides on the awarding of the prize. The decision is expected to be made in mid-February 2024.

Award ceremony

The award will probably be presented at a public event at BTU Cottbus-Senftenberg.
