

Data protection notice

Any personal data provided by you for the Deutschlandstipendium scholarship application will be treated as confidential and collected and processed for the sole purpose of selecting suitable applicants and realising the Deutschlandstipendium scholarship.

We are aware that the data contains highly sensitive information, some of this data (e.g. regarding illnesses, migrant background) is classed in special categories of personal data in line with Article 9 General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Your data will therefore be treated as highly confidential and always be processed and stored on the basis of statutory data protection regulations.

Applicants to the scholarship program are obligated to provide the necessary information for assessing performance and suitability requirements and submit the appropriate evidence. The legal foundation for your obligation to cooperate is Section 10 of the German Scholarship Law (StipG).

If your application is not successful in this selection process, we will store your data for a maximum of 12 months.

Pursuant to Section 13 StipG, federal statistics will shape the requirements for the Deutschlandstipendium scholarship. Universities are obligated to submit scholar data to the state statistical office. The data will therefore be encrypted for this purpose to prevent persons from being identified.

Pursuant to Section 4 StipG, double funding will not be permitted. The Federal Ministry for Education and Research will carry out random checks to prevent double funding. Universities are obligated to submit the necessary data.

Your responsible tax office will inform the financial authorities of the relevant payment (scholarship) according to the regulation on communication using other authorities (transaction reporting regulations of 07/09/1993, Federal Law Gazette I, page 1554 in the relevant applicable version) as well as the codes of practice issued for this purpose. We will advise you of your tax and declaration obligations.
